

FOUR DIRECTIONS

HONORING OUR PAST  PROTECTING OUR FUTURE

Greetings!

The Early Bird deadline is fast approaching for the country's first Tribal Problem Gambling Awareness Conference - Four Directions: Honoring Our Past, Protecting Our Future. We don't want you to miss out on this important and exciting conference October 1-2 at the Muckleshoot Indian Reservation in Auburn, Washington.

The conference will feature:

- Grandmother Agnes Baker-Pilgrim of the Thirteen Indigenous Grandmothers
- Coleen Clark, Domestic Violence Coordinator for STOP Violence Against Indian Women
- Gayl Edmunds, Director of Indian Alcoholism Treatment Services, on Culture as Prevention
Theda New Breast, MPH, of the Native Wellness Institute, on Healing for Loved Ones of Addicted Gamblers
- Judge Teresa Pouley, Northwest Intertribal Court System, will talk about Wellness Courts; and
- Gene Thin Elk, the Founder of the Red Road to Recovery program, will share the Red Road Approach to Healing.

Regular price for the two-day conference is $180, but if you register by September 15, the cost is only $135. Click here for full conference details and our registration form.

Members of the Evergreen Council on Problem Gambling can take advantage of special conference rates:

Early bird (before Sept. 15): $120 (normally $135)

After Sept. 15: $170 (normally $180)

On-site: $200 (normally $225)

In addition, members are entitled to a free workshop for problem gambling outpatient programs for tribal health services on Saturday, October 3.

Membership is only $39 per year and offers many other benefits, including discounts on other trainings and our quarterly newsletter. Click here to download our membership form, or just call our office at (360) 352-6133.

We hope to see you at the conference!

Warm regards,
