PROBLEM GAMBLING TRAINING WORKSHOPS

PRESENTERS

Alan Basham, MA is a counselor educator at Eastern Washington University, where he has been recognized for teaching excellence. He is Past President of the Washington Counseling Association and the Association for Spiritual, Ethical, and Religious Values in Counseling, a national division of the American Counseling Association. An experienced speaker and writer, Alan’s interests center around the importance of the spiritual journey and of staying connected to nature as a part of growth and healing.

Brian H. Farr, MA, LPC, NCGC-II has extensive clinical experience with individuals and families facing the complex issues of problem gambling. Brian’s interactions with workshop participants are enriched by his successful career in the world of business. During the 25 years prior to becoming a counselor, he was a founding partner of an investment management firm, owner/manager of a personnel agency, and member/broker at the Chicago Board of Trade.

Charles Maurer, PhD, ABPP, NCGC-II, WSCCG-II is a clinical psychologist in private practice in Seattle, and a certified gambling counselor in Washington State and nationally. He is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, University of Washington Medical School and in the Department of Psychology, University of Washington. He is the President of the National Council on Problem Gambling and the Vice-President of the Evergreen Council on Problem Gambling.

Janese Olalde, BA, QMHP, CADC II, CGAC II has more than 20 years experience in the addiction and education fields. Having lived in Mexico for four years, she worked as an addiction counselor with Spanish-speaking clients for nine years and has been involved in the Latino community for more than 30 years. Janese previously worked for the State of Oregon DHS as a Problem Gambling Treatment Specialist and is currently a Master’s candidate in the UC O Couples and Family Therapy program.

Ricki Peone-Haugen, MSW, NCGC-II, BACC is an enrolled Upper Spokane Tribal member; she is also from the Arrow Lakes Band of the Colville Confederated Tribes. She holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Developmental Psychology and a Master’s Degree in Social Work. Ricki worked for the Kalispel Tribe of Indians to develop their first comprehensive Tribal Responsible Gaming program, including community outreach, prevention and awareness, education and training, and outpatient treatment.

Thomas G. Ten Eyck, MA, CADC II, CGAC II is an addictions specialist with emphasis on co-occurring disorders and pathological gambling. He designed, implemented, and supervised three separate gambling treatment programs, one of which received a special State of Oregon award for excellence. He has taught problem gambling and other addictions courses. He continues as adjunct faculty in Lewis & Clark’s Graduate School of Counseling Psychology and serves as one of Oregon’s pioneer program of Program Development Consultants (PDC).

Stephen A. Younker, Ed.D, NCGC-II, WSCG-II, BACC is a Washington State Licensed Psychologist. He founded and directs The Center for Counseling and Psychotherapy, LLC, a mental health and addictions outpatient practice in Yakima, Washington. His certifications included the APA Proficiency in the Treatment of Alcohol and Other Psychoactive Substance Use Disorders. His research passion is personal/ emotional intelligence.

8 am – 5 pm*
Problem and Pathological Gambling – The Basics (8 CEU)
Presenter: Tom Ten Eyck, MA, CPGC

Introduces the participants to the treatment basics of problem and pathological gamblers and their significant others. Participants will learn what problem gambling is and how to screen for and assess it. Current theories of problem gambling, including cognitive, behavioral, psychodynamic, and neurobiological will be presented. The profile of the gambler, including magical thinking, the “gambler’s fallacy,” and narcissism will be addressed. Unique treatment issues will be discussed. The gambler’s effect on and special treatment issues of significant others will be presented.

Thursday, July 15, 2010
8 am – 2:30 pm*
Treatment Issues In the Latino Community (5.5 CEU)
Presenter: Janese Olalde, BA, QMHP, CADC II, CGAC II

The goal of this training is to increase your cultural understanding and develop professional clinical skills in working effectively with Latino clients in gambling addiction treatment settings. The training will include the profile of a gambler, treatment strategies, signs and symptoms, the similarities and differences of substance dependence and problem gambling and more.

This workshop will provide participants with an opportunity to learn and practice incorporating information into every day clinical processes through activities and case study scenarios.

2:30 – 5 pm
Breathing Trees and Circling Hawks: Self Care for the Treatment Provider (2.5 CEU)
Presenter: Alan Basham, MA

Participants of this workshop will be mindful of the adverse effects of stress. During this session, students will obtain knowledge of appropriate boundaries as a means of health care and will gain a new or deeper awareness of the importance of nature in self care.

Friday, July 16, 2010
8 am – 5 pm *
Money and Financial Management (8 CEU)
Presenter: Brian H. Farr, MA, LPC

Provide clinically proven, therapeutic tools that support positive changes in the financial behavior of gambling treatment clients. This seminar will examine the impact of money on clients’ values, self-concept and sense of safety; explore common resistance experienced by counselors when addressing client financial issues; and provide an overview of the role and meaning of money in contemporary culture.

Saturday, July 17, 2010
8:30 am – 2:30 pm (6 CEU)
